MAN ARRESTED FOR VEHICLE BURGLARY

On March 6, 2023, at approximately 9:32 a.m., Miami Police were dispatched to 1415 S.W. 32 Avenue in reference to a vehicle burglary. Upon arrival, an office employee reported that an assigned City of Miami pickup truck was left parked and secured on March 3, 2023, in front of the district office to Commissioner Manolo Reyes. Upon returning to work on March 6, 2023, person reporting noticed damage to the front driver's side window.

Surveillance footage was obtained which depicted a subject walking around the building's premises after hours and then subsequently can be seen attempting to open the commissioner's district office doors while peeping inside. Once the subject was unsuccessful in doing so – he then made his way to the parked City of Miami pickup truck and grabbed a shovel which was in the rear truck bed and used the item as a prying tool to gain entry to the vehicle – however yet again he was unsuccessful in doing so. As a result, the vehicle was left vandalized.

The subject has since been identified as Christian Cabello-Diaz, D.O.B. 10/16/1996, and charged with one count Burglary/Unoccupied Structure and one count of Criminal Mischief/More Than $200. Please see the attached redacted affidavit arrest.
