Emergency Dispatcher Graduation Ceremony

The City of Miami Police Department is proud to announce a graduation ceremony honoring the latest cohort of Emergency Dispatchers who have successfully completed the state-certified Public Safety Telecommunication Academy.

These graduates have undergone an intensive eight-week training program, totaling 480 hours, which encompassed departmental policies, procedures, as well as an in-depth exploration of the City of Miami's geography and topography. Additionally, they received hands-on operational training with the communications equipment utilized by the Communications Unit.

Chief Manuel A. Morales and Major Fabria Ellington of the Communications Section will present certificates to the graduates, acknowledging their hard work and readiness to contribute to public safety operations. A select number of graduates will also be recognized with awards for exceptional academic performance, leadership, and professional conduct throughout the program.

*Media representatives are warmly invited and encouraged to attend. *
